The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

Anxious Reader

Of course not. You have a suspicious mind, John Alessio met singer-actress Della-Malva in a motel room near his Lompoc prison residence on four occasions in order to talk to someone about Little League baseball.

Evidence was presented last week during a bribery charge hearing in Los Angeles, in which it was attempting to be shown that John Alessio's son attempted to obtain special treatment for John by offering prison officials certain gratuities. During this hearing it was revealed that John Alessio had attempted to get time off from Lompoc to attend Little League games. Testimony showed that he had reminded prison officials of his interest in and financial contributions to Little League.

In answer to your question, it appears this his visit with Miss Della-Malva could have been to discuss Little League. It figures because Little League is run by mothers. It naturally follows that if you want to talk Little League you do it with those qualified—women. But we'll try to forgive you for being hyper-suspicious.

Joy of Self Help

There is a proposal to increase unemployment insurance from $75 a week to $90.

It is contained in a bill sponsored by Assemblyman Wadie P. Deddeh who says his proposal would "wipe out the losses due to inflation over the past decade."

Unemployment is a traumatic experience and various grants and aids are already available to those who want to work but need to be helped until the crisis is over. That is fitting. But it follows the formula that taxpayers and legislators alike are complaining about. It encourages too many people to become grant-getting non-workers. It has created a vast army of professional welfare receivers.

It also puts the burden back on those who work. They will be tabbed $9-$10 a year more for welfare deductions. California employers will be taxed an additional $50 million the first year, Deddeh says. During this era of ceilings, it is probable that the added tax burden will have to be provided by the release of some marginal workers. These people will be among the first to qualify for the new, higher unemployment payments. That's no way to build confidence among those people who are possibly marginal workers only because they have such low esteem of self.

California's give away programs have already created some messes it should be ashamed of. Its welfare programs convinced a great number of work-qualified people that it is easier, and more fun, to accept welfare than to take the sass of a boss. Many of these non-productive people sat bored at home watching tvee and guzzling beer. They became lousy homemakers and alcoholics. Their children, already in a vicious pattern, became wards of the State. They, too, are eligible for aid until they become adults. Some obtain financial aid if, for no other reason, they lacked the solid home training that encourages youngsters to go out and face the challenges of the world. "Home situation that causes mental unrest," was one definition of a grant to a teen age minor.

Attention to this subject was attracted last week when a Lemon Grove businessman, Roy Davis, who operates the La Mesa-Lemon Grove Escrow Service, revealed that he had just been delivered an unemployment benefits insurance claim. The claim showed that he had employed a female student for part-time work. State's computation showed that she had earned $147 over a two-quarter (6 months) period. That's not very much to pay but it wasn't very much either.

State's computation also showed that the girl had been awarded $1,002.00 of YOUR money.

With the profligate handling of other people's money, state bureaus have helped to create the growing immorality among the people it serves and the government which pays them.

We hope the President's committee reviewing dishonesty in government will spend a few minutes of its concern on programs called "welfare." If they could enforce an acknowledged difference between "welfare" and "giveaway" a great, first step in helping the people of our land to re-discover the joy of helping one's self would have been taken.

OTD Golf Tourney Boasts Trophies, Prizes, Food, Fun

They'll tee off starting at 8:30 at "old" Bonita Golf Course Sunday.

25 foursomes will compete for a sizeable list of gifts and trophies. Golfers will be aided along the way by a portable bar of potables at each tee.

The event is the annual Old Time Days "frolicsome four-some" golf tourney sponsored by Horseshoe Tavern. The fact that it comes the month after Old Time Days dampens no one's ardor. Proceeds, which are rather sizeable, go to the OTD Association and helps defray the costs of the community's annual parade event.

Registrations are closed with 100 more-or-less talented golfers ready to compete. After the contest, they will return to Horseshoe Tavern to eat, alibi and to collect trophies. Numerous door prizes will be distributed while guests are enjoying 100 pounds of beef barbecued for the occasion. The barbecue is provided without cost by the Horseshoe management.

Trophies (six) will go to first and second low gross and low net. Additional trophies will be given for the longest drive and closest to the pin.

Prizes were still to be gathered at press time. The list to then included: Break-down pool cue—Rad-er Music; $20 Wilson putter and 6 golf balls—Las Palmas Sporting Goods; camp lantern—Len's men's wear; burglar alarm—Red's Furniture; two dinners—Pal's Cafe; auto oil, oil pan, filter—Checker; two dinners—El Amigo; jewelry gift—Walters Jewelry; hardware gift—Village Hardware of Coronado; set of silverware—McMahan's Furniture; electric sweeper—Singer; dozen gold balls—First National bank; two tickets to state heavyweight championship fights—San Diego Coliseum; two tickets to Padres—Buzze-Bavazi; ball marker and tees—Bank of America; hardware gift—Russells plumbing; and golf club shoe horn—Rita Wells.

Members are required to the new specialty.

'Bad Check' System To Be Revitalized

Board members of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce learned that the Sheriff's fan-out program as a "bad check warning system" will be revitalized to stem the growing number of complaints.

Detective Frank D. Fowler, of the Sheriff's Fraud Detail, said that a proliferation of bad checks in the east county was the reason for tightening up on check-cashing practices. "Bad checks have gone haywire," he said. "Three persons on the detail have an average of 120 'open cases' on his desk right now—and the stack isn't getting smaller."

Warnings from Fowler on check protection included a closer check of drivers' licenses.

Community Calendar New CofC Function

A community calendar will be kept by the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce, it was decided by board members last week.

The calendar will be kept by the chamber secretary Helen Myers. The purpose is to prevent "double-dating" of community events, a situation that has existed in the past.

Members of various organizations are urged to list event dates with her in time to change the date if the conflict is great enough.

Mrs. Myers may be reached at the chamber office, 469-9621 weekdays 10-3.

ses used for identification. "Check the photo and the signature," he said.

"Firms must exercise more caution in accepting checks from persons not known to them personally," he warned. "Checks and documents bring more money to criminals than burglaries—and the penalty is less severe," he noted. "That's one of the reasons for the growing number of bad check complaints."

Post-dated checks and checks upon which a partial payment has been accepted become promissory notes and such cases cannot be prosecuted in criminal action, he said.

The fan-out system would be put into effect beginning next week, he said.

Other Activities Chamber President Dell Lake announced that work has started—after three years of negotiations—on the improvement of Broadway. It started with re-setting underground utilities in the Broadway-Kempf area. When the project is finally complete, central Broadway will include center island from Olive to Kempf together with traffic control curbs — to match the stretch from Olive to College.

Landscaping and upkeep will be considered at a public meeting Monday morning when a Service Maintenance Area district will be discussed in room 358, County Administration bldg., 1106 Pacific Coast highway at 9 a.m.

In other business, Lake announced that the part of Costa Bella, separated from the north section by the freeway off ramp on which work has already been started, has been re-named Lemon Grove ave. As a comparison with the request for the Broadway improvement, it took only four weeks from the chamber's request to accomplish the name change.

The board also voted to submit a letter to members of the County Board of Supervisors urging that they join Comprehensive Planning Organization (CPO).

Chamber meetings are open meetings, held at Pal's Cafe every fourth Thursday.

Planners Weigh Service Area The newly formed County Service Area in Lemon Grove was described at last Thursday's meeting as one of two things — either it is "Pando-ras's Box" or the only chance for Lemon Grove to "become an area that will continue to be an attractive residential area whose home-owners are proud to reside here."

Proponents of the upcoming tax rate election for the service area stressed the fact that addition of the Broadway Beautification Project to the Park and Recreation Project will eliminate the necessity for holding two elections instead of one resulting in a tax saving to residents. The Beautification Project has the support of the Chamber of Commerce and most of the civic-minded groups in the community. The Business Women's League which has maintained the railroad right-of-way through parts of Lemon Grove cannot indefinitely continue its financial support of the project. A majority of the business people are actively supporting the addition of the beautification project to the service area.

Opponents to the addition of the beautification project to the service area feel that the Planning Association asked for formation of the service area in order to purchase and maintain new park property at Berry and Mt. Vernon sts. dependent upon allocation of some $40,000 in matching funds from HUD and that no other projects should be added to the service area.

MS. HOSPITALITY—A former Miss Lemon Grove became Ms. Westlands Hospitality last week when judges selected Ms. Barbara Kelleher for a rather unique position. Ms. Kelleher, who lives on Brennan st. was judged winner from among 60 contestants. She will serve at the soon-to-be-opened Westlands Bank as hostess.

Ms. Kelleher was a finalist for the Grossmont College Woman of the Year award in 1966. The promotion concept came from Charles Catalano, senior vice president of the bank and was directed by Fred Lewis, radio-television personality who is vice president and director of community relations for the bank.

LM-SV District Citizens Aid In Goal Formulation

During the months of February and March, "representative groups" of citizens who live in La Mesa-Spring Valley School District were asked to participate in defining, setting, and ranking educational goals for the district's schools.

Staff members from each of the district's seventeen elementary schools asked parents and other citizens to convene to review, study, and define which learnings should receive major emphasis in the schools. The citizens were selected in a random fashion so that representative points of view concerning the local public schools would be included. The number of citizens giving up evening hours averaged approximately 40 per school at each of the seventeen elementary schools. This means that approximately 660 community people, a cross-section of citizens, spent more than 2000 man hours in defining, weighing, compromising, and ranking goals for the schools of the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District. The work of the citizens was the second in a series of major steps which the district will take during the rest of this school year and in 1973-74.

The first step was to involve teachers in the school system in the ranking of goals they believed schools should attain. This was done in December of 1972. Eventually, the Board of Education will adopt a revised set of educational goals for the entire school system to serve as a framework for the teaching of the 14,000 children from kindergarten through eighth grade. Using the goals framework as a guide, the teachers and other staff members will prepare statements of detailed performance objectives aimed at achieving the established goals.

A summary of the work of the seventeen "representative community" groups placed the following priority order:

1) Develop skills in reading, writing, speaking and listening

2) Gain a general education and a feeling of self-worth

3) Develop a desire for learning now and in the future

4) Develop good character

5) Develop good character

Mail Bag Dear Editor: Governor Reagan has proposed a constitutional amendment to achieve a reduction, limitation, and refund of taxes. This plan is before the legislature and an initiative campaign has also been launched. The League of Women Voters opposes this plan because it is to be a part of the State Constitution and because its tax refund plan is not equitable. The proposed plan would seriously limit the ability of the legislature to respond to changing federal policies and state economic conditions. One example would be locking specific tax rates into the State Constitution making it very difficult to find new, adequate school money if federal revenue funds diminish. To provide this income tax refund while raising sales taxes will place a heavier tax burden on those least able to pay. Lower income families are forced to spend a greater proportion of their income, therefore, they pay a higher percentage of their income in sales taxes. The League of Women Voters believe the citizens of California are better served by a flexible tax system not locked into the Constitution. Dona Foster President, League of Women Voters of Grossmont-Cajon Valley

Learn Spanish The Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By James Hardison

"Hervir" and "freir" are high usage words around the kitchens where Spanish is spoken. "Hervir" means "to boil" and "freir" means "to fry." They are used in expressions like "Es facil hervir agua." (It is easy to boil water.) and "Ellos van a freir la carne." (They are going to fry the meat.)

"Hervir" means "I boil." This is heard in phrases like "Yo hervir los huevos tres minutos." (I boil the eggs three minutes.) and "Yo hervir los legumbres en agua." (I boil the vegetables in water.)

"Hervir" occurs with the pronouns "el, ella," and "usted." (He, she, and it). Thus we may say "Que hierve ella?" (What is she boiling?), "Ella hierve la espinaca." (She boils the spinach.), and "El hierve todo." (He boils everything.)

"Hervimos" is the way to say "we boil." This is seen in expressions like "Hervimos el agua para el cafe." (We boil the water for coffee.) and "Hervimos la comida en la estufa." (We boil the food on the stove.)

"Frito" is the word that sounds familiar in English today. It is taken from the Spanish verb "freir." It means "fried." It may appear in expressions like "Me gusta comer pollo frito." (I like to eat fried chicken.) and "Ellos comen puerco frito." (They eat fried pork.)

"Frio" means "I fry." We may say "Yo frie la carne en mantequilla." I fry meat in butter.) and "No frie todo." (I don't fry everything.)

"Frie" is translated "fries." It appears in brief expressions like "El frie el tocino." (He fries the bacon.) and "A veces ella frie los huevos." (Sometimes she fries the eggs.), or "Ella frie la carne." (She fries the meat.)

The phonetic guide and recorded voice (276-2762) help demonstrate these:

Say "Que frie usted?" (keh FREE-eh oo-STEHD) for "What are you frying?"

Say "Yo frie el tocino." (yoh FREE-eh ehl toh-SEE-noh) for "I fry the bacon."

Say "Frie ellos los platos." (frie eh-los loh-plah-tohs) for "Fry them the plates."

Lemon Grove Juniors Plan Membership Drive

The Lemon Grove Woman's Club Juniors, a non-profit service organization composed of women between the ages of 18 and 35, is currently involved in a membership drive to recruit ten new members.

The group, which has been in existence since 1945, utilizes its talents to give service where needed to benefit the community, according to president Annamarie Padula.

Among the service projects undertaken by the group are providing food and clothing to the children at the Santa Ysabel Indian Mission, providing funds for children's equipment at Grossmont Hospital, distributing scholarships to local students, and visiting senior citizens at local rest homes.

A major project that the club will undertake this year will be raising funds for the re-opening of the Lemon Grove Youth Center.

The Juniors club, which meets twice a month, also includes several social functions each year, such as pot luck dinners, installation and initiation affairs, pool parties, and other events.

To raise money for their philanthropic projects, the Juniors hold annual fashion shows, flea markets, rummage sales, sell safety identification bracelets, and work surveys.

They also donate time to such projects as the Heart Fund coin cakes, where they frost cakes to be placed in local businesses, and stuff Easter Seals letters for mailings.

As a member of the Federation of Women's Clubs of California, the group meets three times yearly with 19 other county clubs and hold annual conventions, where awards are presented to clubs for their projects.

This year, the local club claimed first place for its youth projects, second place for its conservation projects, and second place for its fine arts projects.

Ten provisional memberships will be given at a salad bar luncheon scheduled for June 13 at 12:30 p.m. at Lemon Grove Park.

Provisional membership provides free membership for three months, but each provisional member must give five hours working on a current project and attend one meeting per month. After the provisional period, the new member pays regular dues and is awarded a Federation pin.

Several members of the club will set up booths beginning tomorrow at local banks and savings institutions to provide information about the club to potential members.

Booths will be located at Southern California First National Bank June 1 and 4, at United States National Bank June 5, at San Diego Trust and Savings Bank June 6, at Bank of America June 7, and at Imperial Savings and Loan June 8.

SV Kiwanis To Aid FFA

Alex Struthers, a director of the Spring Valley Kiwanis Club, was the speaker at the May 23 breakfast-meeting of the club. He told of the club's program to assist area "Future Farmers of America," in their projects.

He said the S.V. Kiwanis, plus other area clubs, would purchase meat animals at the East County Fair. The animals, in turn, would be auctioned off, with the proceeds used to aid the FFA. The Kiwanis program was started a few years ago, headed by Struthers, and since then has gained momentum.

Club president, Craig Howry, reporting on the May 19 Kiwanis auction sale, held on the Mayfair parking lot, said the club made about $600, the funds to be used for youth work in the area. He said that next year the sale may be held in South Spring Valley, which will hopefully attract a new crowd of purchasers and more interested persons.

Howry said the club is to enter a float in the upcoming Casa de Oro Flag Day parade, the club's theme being "Share Your Life."

Auditions Set Next Week For Helix Workshop

Auditions for the eighth annual Helix High School Summer Musical Workshop will be next week in the choir room at the school. Those interested in trying out for musical "Fiddler on the Roof" should attend auditions June 5, 6, or 7 from 5 to 7 p.m.

The production will be staged July 19-21 and 26-28, and roles are open for all students and June graduates regardless of school or district, and to interested non-students by special arrangements. Students in the production will receive credit.

The summer workshops are rapidly becoming a tradition at Helix, according to producer Phil Patton, who said that such musicals as "Hello Dolly", "The Pajama Game", "Kiss Me Kate", "Oliver", and "Bye Bye Birdie" have been successfully staged in the past.

Making this year's production unusual will be the fact that "Fiddler on the Roof" will be performed "in the round" or in arena-type theatre.

For details, contact producer Patton at 4443-0979, director John Kay at 60-0037, or Helix High School, 466-4193.

Family Service Campaign Goal Set at $10,600

The annual membership drive of Foothills Family Service is underway now through June 15. Campaigns are being conducted simultaneously by each of the six affiliated agencies serving San Diego County with a total membership goal of $10,600.

Mrs. Erv Metzger, membership chairman for Foothills Family Service which serves primarily families living in the cities of La Mesa and El Cajon and the communities of Spring Valley, Lemon Grove, Lakeside, El Cajon, Harbison Canyon and Jamul, said that families and individuals who share the association's goals, working to build strong family life and to prevent the breakdown of families, are invited to join the 1973 membership by making a tax-deductible contribution in any amount. Membership categories range from $5 to the Ellen Browning Scripps membership of $100 or more.

The continuing high incidence of family breakdown with mounting family stress and family problems throughout the community, underscores the agency's membership appeal, Mrs. Metzger said.

Lido's Pizza Claims Pony League Title

Lido's Pizza claimed the first-half crown in the Sky-Grove Pony League last week by edging the Green Hornets, 1-0, in an extra inning game, as Ned's Outboard finished second, one game behind the leaders.

In the Lido's-Hornets game, John Young twirled a one-hitter for Lido's over the regulation seven innings, giving way to Chris Flores, who handled the Hornets over the last inning. Mark Foster tossed a five-hitter for the losers. Butch Cushman scored the winning run on a bases-loaded wild pitch.

In the only other game of the first half, Ned's and Murphy Plumbing tied 8-8 in an inning game. Craig Leonetti and Kip Hayes hit homers.

In the second half games, Lido's split a pair, losing 1-0 to the Hornets and bettering the Spring Valley Giants in an inter-league game, 4-1. In the Hornets game, the only run was scored on an error in the last inning. It took nine innings for Lido's to get the Giants, after the Spring Valley team tied things up, 1-1 in the bottom of the seventh. Chris Flores blasted a three-run homer in the ninth to win it.

In other second half games, Ned's and the Lions each won a pair of games to tie for the lead. Ned's trumped Murphy Plumbing, 6-1 on a pair of homers by Earl Ritchey, then whipped Spring Valley's Musser and Sons, 14-2 in an inter-league affair spiced by Kip Hayes' homer.

The Lions swept a pair from A-Rooter despite heavy hitting by the losers.

In the first game, Greg Salva and Mike Neagle hit circuit clouts, but the Lions won, 6-2. In the nightcap, Bob Teimalu blasted two homers and knocked in five runs, but the Lions prevailed, 10-7.

In the week's only other game, A-Rooter lost to Spring Valley's IED, 4-1 in an inter-loop game. Sky-Grove has now won nine of 11 inter-league contests with Spring Valley and Grossmont.

Hitt Wins 100-Lapper

Lemon Grove mechanic and stock car pilot Jim Hitt last week won the special holiday weekend 100-lap open competition main event at Cajon Speedway.

Hitt, who operates his own automotive shop locally, started 11th in the 20-car field, and was unable to make the front of the pack until the 64th lap, when he wrested the lead from Spring Valley driver Pat McIntyre.

Hitt held the lead the remainder of the race, although Bill Butts challenged him several times before dropping back as the race neared the end. Hitt also claimed the 100-lap record of 35:39.51.

McIntyre, who owns one of the five main events, made a game bid for a good share of the big purse, but spun out on the 75th lap to erase all chances of victory.

Both local drivers are expected back in action Saturday night at the Cajon oval, with qualifying at 6:30 p.m. and first race of the evening at 8 p.m. Featured this week will be a powder puff derby with women drivers.

Ginger Cody plays the part of the suds-guzzler, and Helen Cobb and Catherine A. Curran will play her house-mates.

DONATION — Area high school auto shops benefitted this week from a donation by the San Diego County Ford and Lincoln-Mercury dealers of new Ford automotive equipment for training use. On hand for the presentation ceremonies were, Jim Healy, center, parts manager for Corral Ford; Dan Loreman, right, auto shop instructor at Mt. Miguel High School; and, Jim Mosley, left, auto shop instructor at Monte Vista High School. Over $150,000 in engines, transmissions, axles and related equipment was given county-wide by the dealer group.

The Men's Ensemble will present "If Ever I Would Leave You", and "Take Me Home, Country Roads", the Men's Chorus singing "Your Song".

PTA Highlights

S.V. Elementary

"Talent Galore" was the theme of the May unit meeting of the Spring Valley Elementary PTA.

Under the direction of Marvin Webster, sixth grade teacher, the audience was entertained by the talent found among the students of the school. The Kindergarten children started the evening off with a friendship song, followed by musical presentations by Shaun Kennard, Laurie Christensen and Tracey Kennard on the piano; Robin Savella, Barbara Tatman, Judy Lindeneau and Sherry Goldstein on guitars; Lee Dungan on trombone; Stephan Wilson on the flute; and Walter Mazza on the violin.

The Chorus sang "Close to You" and the Ensemble also entertained. The evening also included a tumbling demonstration, an Indian dance by Scott and Charles Chase, comedy skits and a baton solo by Nancy Jennings.

In the absence of Effie Breidenstein, president, Martha Humphries, 1st vice president, presided at the meeting.

The week started out routinely enough for Berg Electric, with a 6-3 decision over Dial Finance on Tonay Favale's one-hitter. On Saturday, however, Dial turned the tables, scoring three times in the third inning before coasting to a 4-2 victory.

In the only other games, Kiwanis and Luigi's split a pair of games, Kiwanis winning the first one, 8-2, with Luigi's bouncing back for a 9-2 decision in the second contest.

In the intermediate league, Art's Lumber won twice to win the first half title, knocking off Colwell Insurance, 6-3, and Mission Bay Concrete, 2-0.

In the minor league, Polar Frozen took the league lead by beating co-leader Worthy Plumbing, 17-6. The lead was short-lived, however, as Worthy won a second meeting between the two teams, 16-5, to day. Robert Cox carried a big move back into a tie for the top spot.

In the rookie league, Jackson Supply and Spring Valley Shopping Center tied for the first half title when Jackson split two games, beating DeVore Painting, 17-4, and losing to Jones Insurance, 23-17, while Shopping Center tied its only game, 19-19 with Pat's Rentals.

The Carriers came alive with good hitting in the first game, coupled with a six-hit shutout by Stan Salazar to win, 8-0. The big bats continued Saturday, resulting in a 10-3 victory. Wayne Swier hit a homer for the winners.

Gulls Strengthen Team In 4-1 For Bruce Cowick

The San Diego Gulls traded our weaknesses last year and left wing Bruce Cowick to the Philadelphia Flyers of the National Hockey League.

The Gulls acquired center Tom Trevelyan, right wing Bob Currier and left wing Bob Hurlburt in a trade that will give the team additional playing power.

Currier and Hurlburt saw action with the Richmond Robins of the American League last season. Stanfield started the season with the Gulls before he was sent to the Portland Buckaroos in a trade involving NHL teams. Trevelyan played the full season in San Diego with the Gulls and his contract now belongs to the San Diego hockey club. He has signed a two year contract with the Gulls.

General Manager Max McNab and coach Jack Evans are both elated with the four-for-one trade with the Flyers. "I'm very pleased to get Jim Stanfield back," said Evans. "Particularly because the power play was one of "Currier and Hurlburt are young players that show promise and we know what Tom Trevelyan can do for us," commented the coach.

Stanfield played 21 games for San Diego in 1972-73 and totaled 23 points on 9 goals and 14 assists.

"Bob Hurlburt has been used as a defensive forward and we feel in this role he can free Nels Venerus for regular duty. He was one of the hardest checkers in the American League last season and is a solid penalty killer," said McNab.

"Currier is a great prospect with good size and speed," continued the Gulls general manager. "Tom Trevelyan showed us last season (25 goals) the potential we knew he had."

"Philadelphia has received a promising prospect in Cowick. Interest had been shown by Detroit and New York for Bruce but we felt the Philadelphia offer was the best," said McNab.

Cowick signed a two year contract with Philadelphia.

Local People Aid In Rating Programs For United Way Funding

Five residents of Lemon Grove and Spring Valley are now serving on United Way Children's Home Association, panel currently reviewing and rating programs of member agencies to determine allocations for the 1973-74 fiscal year.

Funding will come from the 1972 United Way campaign which raised a record $6,352,630.

Those from Lemon Grove are: Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Rudzinski and Dr. Charles H. Hammond. From Spring Valley are: Frank E. Bauer and Carrol L. Schumacher.

The local residents were indoctrinated with over one hundred volunteers throughout San Diego County on the new United Way method of allocating operating funds to agencies. For the first time this year, a shift in emphasis will be made from examining total agency operations and expenses to reviewing the impact of specific programs and services on urgent community problems.

In addition, these programs are being reviewed by sixteen panels with members who reside within the geographic area the agencies serve.

Lemon Grove-Spring Valley residents are members of those panels reviewing only the agency programs serving the east county communities of San Diego County. These include both those agencies with a single local operation such as the Boys' Club of El Cajon, Alpine Youth Center, Boys' and Girls' Aid Society; and those agencies headquartered in San Diego but with area branches, like the Heartland YMCA, Foothills Family Ser-

Washington Trip Not to Detract From Week-end Baseball Excitement

June arrives full of fun and frolic at San Diego Stadium this weekend — the move to Washington not withstanding.

The Padres and the Mets, always an entertaining rivalry, skirmish at night Friday and Saturday and also on Sunday afternoon. And the supporting cast shouldn't be missed.

Padre wives, practicing irregularly since their run-away victory last season, have conceded to allow their husbands another chance to regain lost dignity in Friday night's annual Husbands vs. Wives Game.

Smokey the Bear visits the Stadium on Saturday evening, honoring Gary Ross as the Padre Fireman of 1972 and also presenting Smokey the Bear rulers to all youngsters in attendance.

And there's a double-freak arranged on Sunday.

Fans will be given picture-packs of six Padre players and coaches. They will be available prior to the game for autographs. And afterwards, three popular musical groups will perform in an on-the-grass concert.

The great guys-vs-gals struggle, which promises to produce more laughs than anything else, will commence at 6:45 Friday with the Padres-Mets going on at the regular time of 7:30.

Playing for the tender gentlemen will be Willetta Lee, Eunice Thomas, Diane Campbell, Sue Miller, Patti Kendall, Ellys Hernandez, Karen Greif, Lynda Caldwell, Linda Grubb, Linda Ross, Sue Kirby, Liz Troedson and Joan Skinner.

Sunday's concert features England's "Wishbone Ash," San Francisco's "Joy of Cooking," and the Mason Proffit group from Spokane.

Fans who purchase field and plaza level seats at $4 and $3.50 will be permitted on the field after the game for the concert.

Choral Conducting Is College Summer Class

Grossmont College will offer a special course in Choral Conducting during the six-week summer session. Designed especially to serve the needs of choral directors who have not had formal schooling in conducting, the class will meet from 7 to 10 p.m., each Monday with David L. Glismann, director of choral and vocal activities for the college, serving as instructor.

Students enrolled in the course will receive personal instruction in conducting techniques with special emphasis on time-beating patterns, attacks, releases, control of dynamics and rubato. Phonetics, voice training, stage deportment, placement of voices, recruiting of singers and rehearsal techniques will also be stressed.

The ability to sight read music is a prerequisite for this summer course with the ability to play the piano, while not required, helpful.

The college's Department of Music will also offer a voice class at both Beginning and Intermediate levels daily, Monday through Friday, from 3 to 4:10 p.m. The college summer choir will also meet daily at 1:30 p.m. during the summer session and will present a concert of choral music featuring the historical points of sacred music from the Renaissance to the present with its gospel-rock style.

Application deadline for the courses and other courses offered during Grossmont College's 1973 summer session is June 14 with classes scheduled to begin June 25. Additional information may be obtained by contacting the Admissions Office at the college.

Army Bonus Options Set

The United States Army is now offering two new enlistment options which pay cash bonuses of $2,500 for a four-year enlistment. Titled the U. S. Army Cash Bonus Enlistment Option and the U. S. Army Training and Cash Enlistment Option, both are available to young men who qualify.

Prospective enlistees must meet normal mental, physical and moral standards for enlistment and must also be high school graduates. Those still in school may apply before they graduate if school officials certify they will graduate at the end of the school term.

Under the Cash Bonus Enlistment Option, young men without previous service may volunteer for the artillery, armor or infantry. The offer also applies to former servicemen, if they have served less than three years and have been out of service for more than three months.

The bonus is payable upon successful completion of basic combat training, advanced individual training and the award of a military occupational specialty which certifies the soldier is qualified to perform in his military job.

For further information on the bonus enlistment plans, call Sergeant Leonard Johnson at 442-5700.

Wilson Heads City Of Hope Fund Drive

San Diego Mayor Pete Wilson has been named San Diego County chairman for the City of Hope Month fundraising campaign during June, according to honorary chairman actress Karen Valentine.

In accepting the chairmanship, Wilson noted that, "during 1972 the City of Hope provided more San Diegans—and people throughout the world—with patient care, therapy and family services than any time in its 60-year history."

"The war on cancer and leukemia, diseases of the heart, blood and chest, diabetes and other disorders of metabolism and heredity, is advancing because of the doctors, scientists and researchers at the City of Hope and all of us who support their work with our dollars," he said.

Mayor Wilson will head hundreds of volunteers who will ring doorbells throughout the county during June, seeking funds for the free, nonsectarian medical and research center.

Wrestling, Fights Due At Coliseum Next Week

The promoters of the California heavyweight title fight have changed the script.

First they said State Champion Jack O'Halloran's opponent, Howard "K.O." Smith had been in Colorado State Penitentiary and that he had fought in more than 50 fights while incarcerated.

Then they discovered that the only time "K.O." has been in the pokey was when he fought Ron Lyle, the Colorado State Penitentiary champion. He beat Lyle, KO's record is 13-1. He lost a split decision early in his career.

O'Halloran, a popular local heavyweight who scales in at weights ranging from 240 to 265 won his title last year from Henry Clark. He successfully defended it against Charlie Reno, the human punching bag in Fresno, earlier this month.

The fight will be in the "new" Coliseum at 15th and E sts. under the promotorship of Mickey Davies. The Coliseum has been completely repainted. It even smells clean. Reservations for Coliseum events are available presently at the Coliseum box office. The phone number is 232-8362.

Pinkie George's first in a series of Tuesday night wrestling matches will get off to a start June 5 when Mexico's Ray Mendoza goes against Canada's "Golden Greek" John Tolos.

Wrestling matches will be held every week. Fights will be held every other Friday.

'Under Papa's Picture' In Fifth and Final Week

With Eve Arden beginning her fifth and final week in "Under Papa's Picture" at the Off Broadway Theatre, Producers Don Wortman and Tom Hartzog have announced she has broken all box office records for a straight play. This includes the previous record set by Don Knotts.

The show was scheduled to close last Sunday, but because of heavy demand for tickets was held over through Sunday, June 3.

Don Wortman indicated, "there is no doubt in our minds that we will bring Miss Arden back to The Off Broadway as soon as her busy schedule permits."

At the same time, Wortman continued, "we are thinking very seriously about creating a major U.S. tour, and Mr. Hartzog is currently in London looking into the possibilities of a production over there."

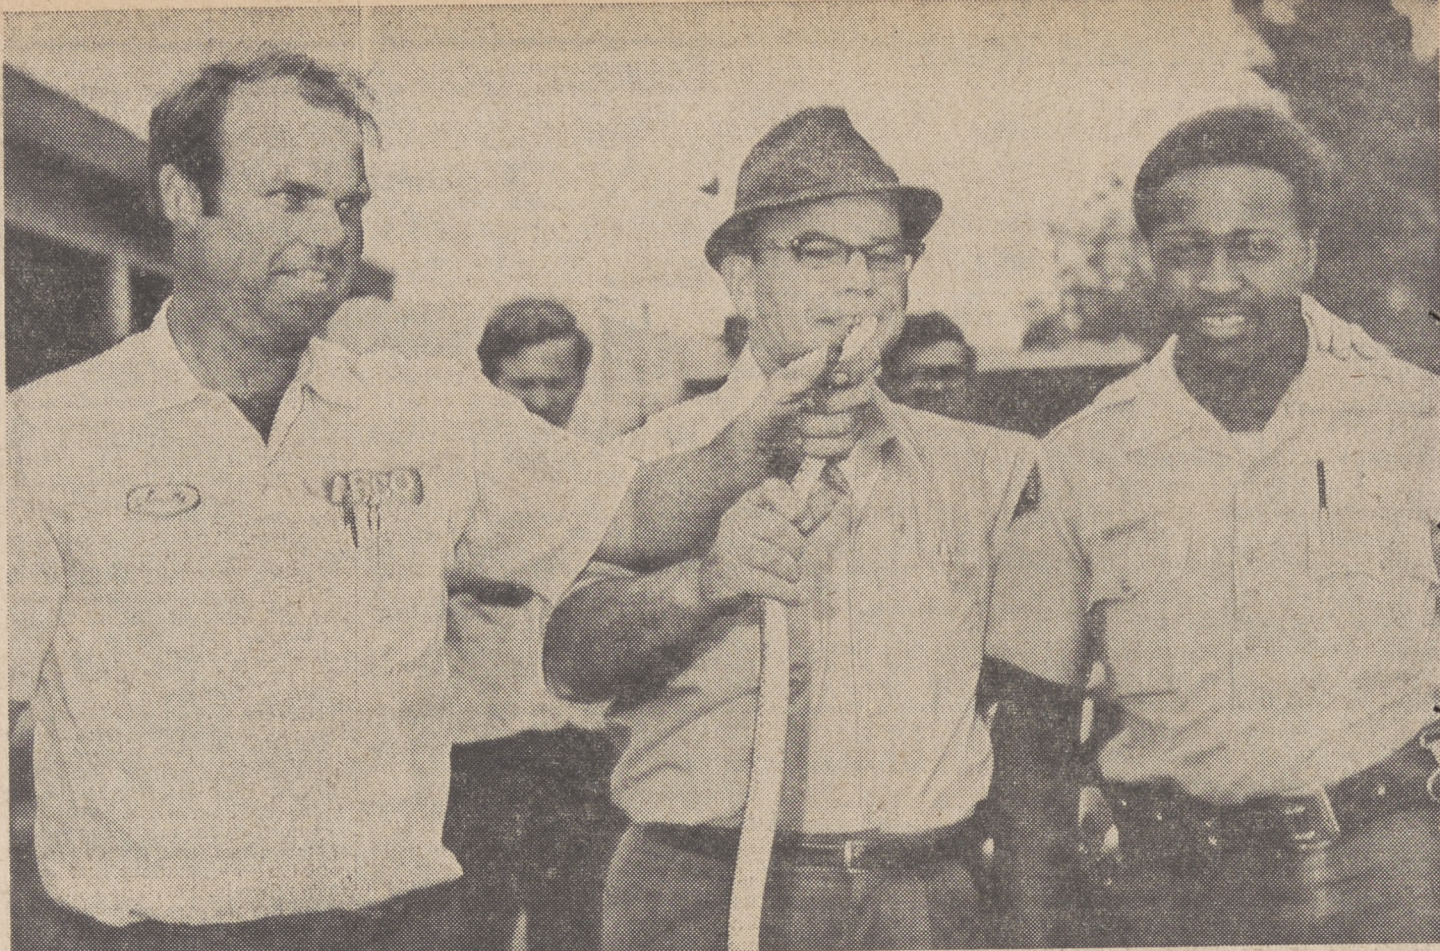

Sandy Baron opens next Thursday in the controversial play "Lenny". Previews are scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday.

Chargers PR Man To Address Class

Walter Hoyer, assistant director of public relations for the Chargers, will discuss the advantages—and disadvantages—of being a professional athlete Tuesday at Palm Junior High School.

The audience will be a "gifted student" class of about 40 12-15 oldsters. The program is being put together by Mrs. Olga Mote, coordinator of the district's gifted program.

Hoyer is well-known and respected in sports circles. The junior high school class chose the field it wanted most to know more about—sports.

BEHIND THE SCENES — Sheriff's Department deputies do more than just the things one usually reads about in the newspaper, like investigation of burglaries or apprehension of criminals. Last week, Deputy Dave Pugh, of the Lemon Grove Station, was called upon to retrieve a snake from under a car, where the frightened reptile had lodged himself in an effort to escape from an attacking bird. The "suspect" was "apprehended" at Smitty's ARCO in Lemon Grove, where the "victim", George Pamp, had driven the car to put it up on the rack in hopes of getting the snake out. In photo, Richard Smith, owner of the gas station, left, and Pamp hold up the snake, later identified as a California King, while Pugh, who confessed he didn't care much for snakes, stood by. The "suspect" was taken into custody at the Spring Valley Animal Shelter.

Shamu Splashes into Politics; Promises 'Fun' for Constituency

Shamu, Sea World's killer whale, whose popularity as a matinee idol gave way to fame and Hollywood stardom just two years ago, has taken the next obvious step — politics.

In his press conference announcement speech, the sleek black-and-white star officially tossed his hat into the political arena. He said he would present his platform at that time in his first major rally.

In his campaign, Shamu will promise:

- two mackerel in every pot
- that he would always be at hand when needed (not like some "out-of-town mayors")
- to kiss all babies who come out to support him
- to keep the ball moving in City Hall
- Shamu, who is expected to be a slide in, has extended his broad "coattails" for the other candidates on the ticket, and offers a good political ride for those who need his support. And like any good politician, Shamu will present his platform daily at Sea World arranged the music.

—with his campaign manager on top of it. He has the support of the governor, as well as other well-known stars.

Local mayors and other prominent citizens were on hand at the pre-campaign rally last week to take part in the kick-off. It was held in Shamu's new $1 million home, park, soaring to 800 feet

The skit for the "Shamu aglow with strobe lights and fiery flares attached to his and produced by Dan Kibbie, Hollywood freelance writer. There was also an all-new producer. Kibbie, recipient of two Emmy awards, co-produced the award-winning Sea World documentary "Gigi matic tale of adventure in the Goes Home."
